

Haley Hall Dining Facility

Dress Code

Instructors on duty have the authority to remove and report any person(s) not complying with the standards.

---

Military

Uniform of the day is always appropriate

---

Civilian

- Patrons may wear civilian attire in the CGDF with the following exceptions:
  - Dirty, torn or otherwise mutilated clothing of any kind. (includes military uniforms and civilian clothing)
  - Combinations of military and civilian clothing. (excluding the blue CG t-shirt)
  - Headgear of any type. (excluding food service personnel on duty, law enforcement personnel under arms, religious headgear, and headgear deemed necessary for medical purposes)
  - Plain white V-neck undershirts, Halter tops, Sport Bras, Tank Tops, or any upper-body garment that exposes the midriff or underarm.
  - Any attire that is sweaty, dirty, or otherwise soiled. This includes gym attire as well as work attire.
  - Revealing shorts, pants or skirts exposing undergarments.
  - Clothing with language or logos showing or discussing illegal drugs, containing anti-military messages, or containing obscene or lascivious messages.
  - Other clothing deemed inappropriate by the instructors on duty in the galley.
-

Cell Phones Refrain from usage to official or emergency purposes during Lunch hours due to limited space.

---

Backpacks All backpacks, briefcases, and bags shall be stowed in the hat/coat storage area near the CGDF entrance and not carried into the dining room. Purses are authorized to keep on your person.

---